MOTION BY SUPERVISOR YVONNE BRATHWAITE BURKE

April 22, 2003

On April 24, 2003, Sheriff Baca will be hosting a forum on Homeland Security at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion in the Music Center. Participants will include all Sheriffs, Police and Fire Chiefs, Mayors, City Council Members and Board of Supervisors invited from all over the entire State of California. Issues concerning the safety and welfare of all California residents will be discussed and strategies will be put into place to assure that the public safety and law enforcement community is well prepared for all possible and potential situations. Sheriff Baca is to be applauded for taking the statewide lead in these discussions.

THEREFORE, I MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Waive the parking costs of $9,600 for approximately 600 vehicles ($16.00 per car) for parking at the Music Center garage, and the facility fee of $800 for the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, excluding the cost of liability insurance, for the Homeland Security Forum hosted by Sheriff Baca on April 24, 2003.
